Justin's Nut Butters

Though there was no shortage of goodies to fall for at the most recent Fancy Foods Show in New York, Boulder's own Justin's Nut Butters laid it on thick with their locally and sustainably sourced spreads. The hip company's Chocolate Hazelnut Butter tastes just as sinful as Nutella but has 60 percent less sugar and is available in portion-controlled 2-tablespoon squeeze packs. Not a hazelnut fan? We also go nuts for Justin's Classic Almond Butter (justinsnutbutter.com). — AC
